

Web Sites for Tutors

<http://www.elcivics.com>

<http://www.elcivics.com/esl/lessons.html> - Lessons around themes with nice pictures and words and sentences for the tutor to say.

http://www.elcivics.com/esl\_powerpoint\_lessons.html - excellent power points of the theme lessons.

<http://usalearns.org> - lessons for beginners

<http://www.reepworld.com> - lessons about medicines etc.

<http://www.talkenglish.com> - students can listen to many phrases

<http://www.kidport.com> - over 800 words with pictures and sound - click on contents - then other stuff - English as a Second Language modules

<http://esl.about.com> - Has something for everybody - many interactive quizzes - also printables

http://esl.about.com/od/teachingbeginners/a/ab\_beg\_intro.htm?p=1 Great 20 step starting program for teaching beginners.

http://esl.about.com/od/englishspanish/a/curso\_basico\_de\_ingles.htm
English-Spanish beginning program

<http://busyteacher.org> - has hundreds of work sheets and games

<http://www.azargrammar.com> Has many worksheets and excellent power points.

<http://www.englishmaven.org>      <http://www.englishforeveryone.org>

Maven has on line activities - English for Everyone has printable sheets of everything that is on Maven

<http://readtheory.org> is a reading site - has stories from first grade to 12th

<http://www.eslyes.com>

<http://www.eslfast.com/easydialogs/index.html>

These two web sites are almost the same. They have audio for the student to listen to. I copy and paste conversations into Word and print. They both have stories which someone reads.

<http://www.eslgamesworld.com> - games for students and classes

<http://www.eslflashcards.com>

<http://www.toolsforeducators.com> make games, worksheets, flashcards

<http://bogglesworldesl.com> - Lantern Fish – ESL for Adults

<http://iteslj.org/games> - Games to use with students

<http://esl.about.com> – Has something for everybody – many interactive quizzes – also printables

http://esl.about.com/od/teachingbeginners/a/ab\_beg\_intro.htm?p=1

Great 20 step starting program for teaching beginners.

<http://www.reepworld.com> –lessons about medicines etc.

www.pumarosa.com/ingles - beginning English with Spanish directions

<http://www.manythings.org/voa/words-frequency.htm> - Words in color by category

<http://www.eslflow.com> – Directory of web sites

<http://www.manythings.org> – Directory of web sites