

BARTLESVILLE BOOKMARK

SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2018

September is Library Card Sign-up Month!

Bartlesville Public Library has joined libraries across the nation to promote card holder awareness during September's Library Card Sign-up Month initiative. This event, held in association with the American Library Association, is aimed to encourage everyone to renew or sign up for a library card—including BPL's new digital card.

Library Director Shellie McGill says "the value of having a library card is "priceless" yet sign-up is free to those living, working, or attending school within the Library's service area." "A library card is a tool that can be used to acquire knowledge and enrich our lives like nothing else can," said McGill. "BPL has more than 120,000 materials—including books, DVDs, Blu-rays, audio books, video games, and our latest collection: The Library of Things—available for checkout to anyone who has a card. The list of resources and services available to library card holders is virtually endless." McGill said Library Card Sign-up Month is an opportunity to let everyone know the value of having a library card but also serves as a reminder to parents, teachers, and students that a card is "the most important school supply of all."

According to the American Library Association, studies show that children who read at home and use library resources perform better in school. Likewise, they are more apt to continue using the library as a source of lifetime learning, and later in life they are also more likely to introduce their own children to the library at a young age.

This year BPL will be celebrating library users with special, weekly giveaways. Beginning September 4th, anyone who visits the Library and checks out materials, signs up for a new card or renews their old library card can fill out an entry ticket for the weekly drawing. At the end of each week throughout September, BPL Staff will draw a prize winning entry. Prizes will be awarded each Friday. Adults will receive $25.00 in "Chamber Bucks" issued by the Bartlesville Regional Chamber of Commerce. Children will receive $10.00 in Chamber Bucks. Also—during September, any current library card holder can trade their old card in for one of BPL's newly designed library cards for free!

To sign up for a new library card, simply provide proof of address with a photo ID, such as a non-expired driver's license or State-issued ID, and a piece of mail matching that address. Mail must be postmarked within the last 30 days and addressed to the card holder. Children's cards will be issued to adult cardholders with no document requirements.

For more information about BPL services, visit www.bartlesvillelibrary.com, the Library's Facebook Page, or call 918-338-4171.

THE STORY OF WORLD WAR 1

The Bartlesville Public Library is pleased to host John Hinkle on Thursday, October 25th at 7:00 PM. Mr. Hinkle will be touring Oklahoma over the next four years speaking on The Story of World War I. August 2014 marked the one hundredth year observance of the start of hostilities that lasted for four years and cost countless lives.

The "War to End All Wars" should never have happened. Mr. Hinkle, appearing in costume as a World War I General, will take the audience step by step through the twists and turns of three cousins, the Kaiser of Germany, the Czar of Russia, and the King of England as they slipped into the quagmire of political alliances dragging France, the United States and others into situations, much as the world is experiencing today.

This program will appeal to all history buffs and military. History students will also benefit. The program is free and will be held in Meeting Room A. For more information, call (918) 338-4187.

DONATIONS

Have you wondered what happens to the books, DVDs, Blu-rays, video games, magazines, books on CD or music CDs that are donated to the Library? Every item is reviewed to determine if it can be added as a new title, or if it can replace a current copy of that item or if the material is in line with the Library's Collection Development Policy and current Mission Statement.

If the item cannot be used for the collection, it will be given to the Friends Bookstore. All proceeds from Bookstore sales goes to support programs, events, and services at the Bartlesville Public Library.

Please be sure that items donated are reasonably clean. Check with the Library Staff before donating a large number of items. Please call 918-338-4165. The Library does not accept Readers Digest Condensed books, or encyclopedias and textbooks that are 5 years old and older.

MAUSOLEUM STORIES TO BE TOLD AT WHITE ROSE

White Rose Cemetery will present "Mausoleum Stories" on October 18 and 19 at 7:00 PM and on Saturday, October 20, at 2:00 PM at the White Rose Mausoleum. This event features historical re-enactors portraying early day Bartlesville pioneers at rest at White Rose.

The event, formerly known as Bartlesville Notables began in 2006 as an OK Mozart Showcase event and has grown, and changed each year since that time. According to Marilyn Johnson, Mausoleum Stories scriptwriter, "We have been adamant that the play be very respectful of those interred here. We focus on the presentation of historical information."

The popular event is a fun and interesting evening of theater at the beautiful Mausoleum. The historical resting place of some of Bartlesville's most celebrated citizens. The event features only a few of the notables buried at White Rose Cemetery and each year brings new stories. The event guides visitors to the chapel area, where costumed actors will share the stories of those being portrayed.

As in the past, the "Guardian of the Stories" will introduce each of the pioneers as they tell about their lives. Those being portrayed this year are a Confederate and a Union Soldier, a victim of the first shootout on Statehood day, a local Suffragette, and a Cherokee Freedmen.

Admission is $10.00 per person. Advanced tickets may be purchased at the Bartlesville Public Library. Proceeds from Mausoleum Stories benefit the Cemetery and Beautification Projects. For more information contact the Cemetery Office at 918-338-4070 or email whiterose@cityofbartlesville.org.

Looking for something to do during the schools' Fall Break that is local, free, and fun? Join us at the library for these special events!

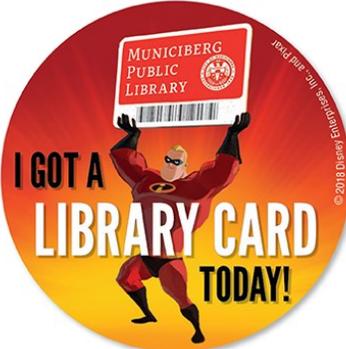

Thursday, October 18, 2-3pm – Pumpkin Seed Project – The Green Thumb Club, our local affiliate of National Garden Clubs, is participating in the NGC's initiative "Plant America" by providing this event and donating a copy of the book The Saved Seed to the library. The Saved Seed, published by NGC, follows the journey of a smiling pumpkin seed from Halloween pumpkin through the year, becoming a seedling, a vine and then a new pumpkin! Along the way, children learn through beautiful illustrations how to care for their own pumpkin seeds and become successful pumpkin gardeners! After reading this book and discussing basic gardening information, members of the Green Thumb Club will lead participants in removing seeds from real pumpkins, always a fun mess! The kids will each get a pumpkin seed, along with some other seeds, to take home and plant themselves. This program is open to all elementary-aged children.

Friday, October 19 – ORIGAMI!
1:00 – Third grade and under
3:00 – 4th grade and over

Origami artist Mae Dean Erb will present these origami workshops for kids! She holds a Master's Degree in Education and is certified K-12. She presents origami programs, which include storytelling, in libraries across the state of Oklahoma and nationally. Mae Dean received a Fulbright Memorial Fund Scholarship to Japan and lived in Okinawa for two years. She was a finalist for Oklahoma's Teacher of the Year and teaches in Muskogee Public Schools in Muskogee, Oklahoma.
