

BARTLESVILLE BOOKMARK

September/
October 2019

Creative Corner

The Bartlesville Public Library's new Creative Corner is now accepting reservations for September 16th and later. The Creative Corner is a creative space complete with supplies for teachers, crafting enthusiasts, and library patrons to work on bulletin boards/classroom visual materials, flyers, scrapbooks, artistic signs and countless other creative projects. The Corner comes equipped with a computer, printer, a Cricut Maker, numerous Cricut cartridges, a Cricut Press, a light table, embosser, paper cutter, specialized tools and many creative supplies.

This new service is made possible by a grant received from ConocoPhillips. Library Director Shellie McGill said, "We are extremely grateful to have the funds to create this new service and make it available to our community. We are determined to provide an excellent collection of free services, programs and classes that engage our community. We also appreciate the many donations of craft supplies we received from area residents. With their help, we have fully stocked cabinets and we are ready to be your creative destination!"

The Creative Corner is available for use during regular library hours. Individuals can reserve the area for two hours, and for groups of three or more, the Corner can be reserved for up to four hours. To reserve a time, or for additional information, call the Reference Desk at (918) 338-4169. The Library is located in downtown Bartlesville at 6th and Johnstone.

Crafting @ Your Library

With the opening of the new Creative Corner, the Library is hosting monthly crafting classes. The classes, which will feature a wide array of crafts to explore, are free and open to the public. In addition to the monthly crafting classes, the Library offers a newly-formed Scrapbooking Club, which will also meet monthly. Beginners and those who have been scrapbooking for years are all welcome to attend to share and learn new things from each other. The Scrapbooking Club will also be supplemented with new projects and techniques you can choose to try!

On Thursday, September 12 from 6 pm to 8 pm, there will be a Sewing Tote Bags Class. You will learn how to sew a simple and useful tote bag to carry your belongings. Some sewing machines will be provided, including those from the Library's Things Collection, but if you have one please bring it. You will receive a kit of supplies and should be able to complete a tote bag to take home with you at the end of the class.

On Thursday, September 19, from 2 pm to 4 pm, the Scrapbooking Club will meet and learn about the Library's new Cricut machine. There will be basic supplies available for scrapbooking, but you are welcome to bring your own.

On Thursday, October 10, from 2 pm to 4 pm, there will be a Creating Journals Class. You will be provided with a paper journal and will be provided with a kit of materials to construct a simple cloth cover for your journal. Sewing machines will be provided, including those from the Library's Things Collection.

On Thursday, October 31, from 6 pm to 8 pm, the Scrapbooking Club will meet and share ideas, tips and techniques. Basic scrapbooking materials will be provided, and you are welcome to bring your own project and supplies.

The classes will be held in the Library's meeting room C. Class size is limited, so registration is required. To register or for more information, please call the Local and Family History desk at 918-338-4167 for more information.

BPL Library Card.... Your Must-Have School Supply!

Some of us love shopping for school supplies...others, not so much. Either way, the Bartlesville Public Library offers one of the most important school supplies a student can have. A library card can give students, from pre-school to college, access to countless resources! Besides our extensive collection of fiction and non-fiction books, audiobooks, and Playaways for all ages, here are just a few examples:

Preschool

Picture books and early leveled readers

Read-along sets, containing book and cd

TLC Kits, themed resource kits, which are currently being updated

Playaway Launchpads, pre-loaded learning tablets which can be checked out of the "Things Collection"

Elementary and Middle School

Free use of computers and iPads in the library

Fun and informational databases like Explora and Encyclopedia Britannica

Band/orchestra instruments, microscopes, telescopes, and more, which can be checked out of the "Things Collection"

High School and College

Digital library cards, which will give access to all online and digital services only (no ID needed)

Laptops to check out for in-library use, along with free use of computers and iPads in the library

Overdrive ebooks and audiobooks

Interlibrary loan service, exam proctoring, and Spanish tutoring

Graphing calculators, which can be checked out of the "Things Collection"

Research databases like Ebsco and Homework Help Now

The great thing about a library card is that it's FREE! September is "Library Card Sign-up Month," so get yours today. View this link on BPL's website <http://www.bartlesville.lib.ok.us/my-account/using-the-library/library-cards> to see how.

September is Library Card Sign-Up Month, a time when libraries nationwide join together to remind parents, caregivers and students that signing up for a library card is the first step towards academic achievement and life-long learning. Libraries offer resources and services that help people pursue their passions and give students the tools to succeed in school and beyond.

This year, BPL will be celebrating library users with a special giveaway. Beginning September 3rd, anyone who visits the Library and checks out materials, signs up for a new card or renews their old library card can fill out a drawing entry ticket. We will draw four tickets at the end of the month for two $50.00 "Chamber Bucks" for adults and two $25.00 "Chamber Bucks" for children issued by the Bartlesville Regional Chamber of Commerce. You can also trade in your current library card for a new one at no cost.

To sign up for a new library card, simply provide proof of address with a photo ID, such as a non-expired driver's license or State-issued ID, and a piece of mail matching that address. Mail must be postmarked within the last 30 days and addressed to the card holder.

We hope to see you soon!

Digital Conversion Center

The Bartlesville Public Library is honored to have received a sponsorship for $350 from the Bartlesville Rotary Club to assist in the creation of a Digital Conversion Center. This equipment allows the user to convert older personal media to new technology. For example, those VHS tapes or camcorder tapes you have can be converted to DVD or digital.

The Digital Conversion Center is located in the Local Family History Area of the Library, directly behind the circulation desk. This center is a self-service center and can be reserved in 2-hour blocks. We will provide basic instruction and the patron performs the conversions. The equipment does conversions in real time so if you are converting a 2 hour tape from one media to another, it will take 2 hours to perform the conversion. Please bring a thumb drive or a DVD to load your converted files onto.

We have a DVD Recorder that converts VHS to DVD, a converter that converts Video to Digital, Vinyl to Digital, Cassette's to Digital, and a VHS-C Converter to DVD or Digital.

The user is required to sign a release indemnifying the library should the media become damaged in the conversion process and agreeing to follow copyright laws.

The center is available for library patron use at no charge during library hours. Please call 918-338-4167 to make a reservation for the center.

We love helping you preserve your memories!

In July and August, the Library added more musical instruments to our Library of Things Collection!

The Library of Things Collection already has many musical instruments for youth and adults. We are excited we are adding more music options.

For questions regarding the Library of Things, please call our Reference Staff (918) 338-4168.

Mausoleum Stories at White Rose Cemetery

White Rose Cemetery will present "Mausoleum Stories" on Oct. 25 and 26, 6:00 PM at the White Rose Mausoleum. This event features historical re-enactors portraying early day Bartlesville pioneers at rest at White Rose. This popular event is a fun and interesting evening of theater at the beautiful White Rose Cemetery Mausoleum. The historic cemetery has approximately 10,000 interments and is the resting place of some of Bartlesville's most celebrated citizens. Mausoleum Stories features five or six of these notables and each year brings new stories.

According to Kim Inman, Cemetery Relations Coordinator, "The goal remains the same each year: provide visitors with a program that is different, interesting and informative. This is an opportunity for us to share the rich history of White Rose and its pioneers with the community."

As in the past, Marilyn Johnson will take the research provided by Inman and write the script. Kristin Duncan will take over the rolls of casting and directing. The "Guardian of the Stories" will introduce each of the pioneers as they tell about their lives. Those portrayed this year are Veshelo "Shela" Bitinis Ward, Jesse Lee Overlees, Dan Mitani, George Orloski and Nelson Carr.

Admission is $10 per person. Advanced tickets may be purchased beginning September 16th at the Bartlesville Public Library. Proceeds benefit the White Rose Cemetery Beautification Projects. For more information contact the cemetery office at 918-338-4070 or email whiterose@cityofbartlesville.org.
